God Damn Religion Chapter 6 Satan's Manifesto

Islam's Account of Creation

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. I appreciate your understanding.

0:00 Good evening, and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. I'm here with Kirk and Dee. This is a very somber moment for us and should be for the world. There are very few days in the history of humankind that stand out and shout as a result of this day; nothing will ever be the same. On October 7th of this year, on a Shabat morning, somewhere around 2,500 Islamic Jihadists from Gaza rampaged into Israel, raping little girls, burning babies alive, mutilating children in front of their parents, murdering on that day some 1,400 Jews, and kidnapping over 200 more. It was the most savage display of inhumanity that the world had witnessed in over 1,000 years. It's not just the horror, the cruelty, the sadistic nature of what Islam did through the terrorists who attacked the Jews on this day; the reason this day changed the world forever is because of the way the world has responded to it. The United Nations is trying to stir up the next Holocaust, and Russia and China are in it with both feet as if reopening the doors of Auschwitz. Muslims around the world are enraged and hunting Jews, beating and killing them, and marking their homes and businesses. It's no different than things were back in Nazi Germany other than Muslims are far more egregious, far more sadistic than the Nazis, there's far more of them, and there is no cure for what ails them.

2:47 The world ignored the advice that I proclaimed some 22 years ago after meeting Al-Qaeda, Hamas, and Islamic Jihad within a month of the Islamic suicide bombings of the World Trade Center in 2001 and listening to them explain that they were following Allah's orders, that they were being good Muslims when they killed 3,000 Americans on 9/11, I took it upon myself to become an expert in the Islamic scriptures. That's a little unfair. Yahowah asked me to become an expert and then report what I learned. It didn't take long before I realized that the jihadists that perpetrated 9/11 had not corrupted their religion but that their religion had corrupted them, and as I continued to study and read just how horrific the Quran was, it's easily the worst book ever written, Muhammad would qualify as the worst human who ever lived. It became obvious that there were only three ways out of this problem, or it would consume the world. Today, as I speak to you in the wake of 10.7, there's only one of those that will have any effect because it is 20 years too late for the first two.

4:35 What I told everyone who would listen back then is that the first thing that we have to do is to treat this like a disease, that Islam is a disease, that it infects people's ability to be moral or to think, it makes them virulent, deadly, far worse than the Black Plague. It's not my opinion; it's a statement of fact. And because Islam is so horrific, so deadly, so prone to terror, so antisemitic, the only way to protect innocent life from it was to quarantine it, to do exactly the opposite of what Angela Merkel did to Europe when she brought millions of these diseased Muslims into the Continent. Any disease this deadly can only be remedied if it is quarantined. We have to allow Muslims to live among themselves but not affect anyone else.

5:58 The second thing I said is that we have to stop funding our demise and that as the Western World continued to buy oil, the black ooze underneath the soils of Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, and Qatar, that all we were doing was providing weapons to the jihadists who would ultimately kill us. What I predicted then is evident now that the world is so enraged at Israel's attempt to resolve the problem of Hamas that this is going to trigger divisions that ultimately lead to a world war with China, Russia, and Iran, with Iran's proxies on one side and the United States, Europe, and Saudi Arabia on the other. Realizing this, the second step that had to be done was that the West had to stop selling weapons and stop enriching the Islamic Fiefdoms. That might have sounded extreme back then, but it was nonviolent; no one was harmed as a result, and innocent life was spared. None of the 1400 Jews who died on October 7th, almost a month ago, would have died if that had occurred.

7:44 The third thing I said is the only thing I think that has merit today is to expose and condemn the religion using evidence and reason to wield its own scriptures against it. We're going to do that again tonight by talking about the Islamic creation stories and what they foretell in terms of just how utterly stupid Muhammad and Allah actually were and that it isn't in anyone's interest to prop this religion up as if it were great, that if it were peaceful, as if it were something that contributed to humanity. It needs to be mocked and then obliterated.

8:45 Now, as we proceed this evening, I want to reiterate something that I've said each of the last four weeks: Israel is in a situation that it cannot win. Israel is going to be condemned by the world, and it's only going to get worse for doing nothing, and the world condemns it for responding. To bomb Gaza is, from the world's perspective, condemnable. Russia said Israel has no right to protect itself because it is an occupying Nation. No, it's not. It's not occupying Gaza. It hasn't occupied Gaza since Bush forced them to give it away 20 years ago. No Jews are living in Gaza.

9:53 The fact of the matter is that there are no Palestinians in Gaza either; there's no such thing as a "Palestinian." If you go back prior to the formation of Israel, it was an outdoor prison maintained by the Egyptians who want nothing to do with the people living there. They won't even open the gate into the Sinai, and all they have in the Sinai are massive amounts of desert.

10:17 There is the most gruesome video I've seen in a long time just because of the nature of it. Hamas has gunned down women and children with their precious few belongings walking because they don't have any vehicles on roads out of Gaza, so they no longer serve as human shields to these despots, these sadistic beasts, so that they can go south and get out of the war that they did not cause. And what is Hamas doing? They're gunning them down in the streets, killing women and children in cold blood, and then just leaving them in the street as a warning to anyone else who isn't willing to serve as a human shield for the monsters of Hamas. The World is, of course, not condemning it. That's the reality.

11:30 The reason Israel cannot prevail isn't because of Hamas. Even if Israel could kill every Hamas leader and most of the Hamas Jihadists, it wouldn't make any difference whatsoever. They all deserve to die, sure. Would I applaud their death? Absolutely. But it'll make no difference because Hamas is simply a symptom of this problem, and until Israel comes to realize that the problem is Islam, you're wasting your time. You cannot beat back a disease by treating the symptoms, and Islam is the disease. You know it's true; you're just afraid to say it. How is it that Iran, the theocracy, can use Sunni Muslims as proxies, other than they're both Muslims? As Muslims, the Quran orders them to hate Jews. Allah demonizes Jews and calls them apes and swine. So, if you were to interview Muslims almost anywhere in the world, they'll tell you, yeah, Jews are demons; they're apes and swine. When you dehumanize people, it makes them easier to kill, and that's what's happening. And yet the Muslims are killing for a God who is actually Satan. It's so obvious that all one has to do is read the Quran with an open mind, apply any degree of logic to it, and set it into the context of the Hadith, which comprises Sunni, and the first conclusion is Muhammad is as dumb as a stone, Allah is no smarter, but they have an exceptionally sadistic and evil bent. So, we will do what we can to help Israel with the third leg of that solution since it's too late to impose the first two, and at least it may buy them some time.

14:03 Our primary objective, however, is something that we will return to in these programs, which is awakening Yisra'el | Israel Yahuwdym | Jews to Yahowah. They have forgotten their God and have been insolent towards Him. The more religious they are, the more abusive they are of the relationship He intended. The more progressive they are, the more ignorant they are of who He actually is. So, our primary mission here is to herald Yahowah's return with the Messiah and Son of God, who is not the fellow that Jews have been conditioned to despise; the Messiah and Son of God is Dowd whose name you've corrupted to David. So, we will continue.

15:09 I'm going to take us back to Chapter Five of God Damn Religion. Portions of the initial draft have been posted so that our listeners know where I am on this. I was able to completely rewrite the first 450 pages of what was Prophet of Doom and now is God Damn Religion and then I decided to go back to the beginning and rewrite the rewrite, if you will, and I think I'm on page 250 of the rewrite of the rewrite. So, we are within that section as we proceed tonight. My goal is that I want the results to be exceedingly biting.

16:06 I've studied Yahowah's Prophets, and I know that at times like this, the style and approach that Yahowah favors is that of 'Elyah, who was exceedingly sarcastic and biting. He attacked with full vengeance the politics and the religion of his day. 'Elyah took the approach that I'm taking, which is not only to mock the religious and political but to destroy their credibility. But 'Elyah did something else that very few people are willing to do - he put his life on the line when the odds were tens of thousands, if not millions, to one against him. There was no one else who was willing to say the same things, the things that needed to be said. He was opposed by the religious and political establishment of his country, and yet he was bold, blunt, and aggressive.

17:33 I've heard rumors that as I shared bits and pieces of the first rewrite of God Damn Religion last week that some think it's too sarcastic, too harsh. I'm here to tell you that the primary purpose of the rewrite of the rewrite was to make it harsher. I don't like Satan. I've got a thing against rape. I don't like pedophilia, terrorists, mass murderers, or Islam; I despise Muhammad and Allah. I'm not afraid of them. This notion of islamophobia is the dumbest idea that Progressives have ever perpetrated on an unthinking world. For someone to expose and condemn Islam, the last thing they are is afraid of it. For moral grounds, I despise it, and so I mock it, and my mocking tone is designed not only to make this dark world accessible but because if there wasn't some humor to this, it would be too dark for most people even to endure. Second, I work for Yahowah. He is my full-time employer; that's all I do, 14 hours a day, seven days a week, I work for Yahowah. Yahowah has His standards; there are things that He expects. And when it comes to things like Islam, politics, and religion that are harming His people, He has chosen the approach that He likes and thinks is the most effective, which happens to be biting sarcasm. So, with that in mind, I'll begin.

19:49 Islam's account of creation, or should I say accounts, is a wee bit less credible and a touch less consistent than what you find in the opening chapter of Bare'syth | Genesis. There are over one hundred of them – albeit none at the beginning of the Quran nor any of them tied together into a cohesive narrative. And the contrast between Yahowah's explanation as it was revealed to Moseh in 1447 BCE, and Allah's / Muhammad's absurdities some 2,000 years later, are stark. To claim that they came from the same God is imbecilic.

20:56 From the English translation of The History of al-Tabari, Creation to the Flood, we find...

21:04 Tabari I:188 “Jews came to the Prophet and asked him about the creation of the heavens and the earth.” Allah didn't provide a cogent explanation of our beginnings in his Quran, so Muhammad felt obliged to help him out.

21:22 Now the fact is when we read things like this the first thing you should know is they did not happen. This isn't an accounting of history but instead a defense mechanism. Everything that has any merit at all in the Quran was plagiarized through the Talmud of the Torah. Everything. There's nothing in the Quran that even sounds even the least bit credible that wasn't pilfered from the Torah through the Talmud. So, Muhammad then took these stories that he paid to have recited to him (rabbis will make a buck on anything) and twisted them. Then he claimed that the stories that he had paid rabbis to recite to him that he twisted to serve his own situation came from Allah and the rabbis laughed at him and mocked him. Muhammad's response was to turn his god on them to dehumanize them, to call them apes and swine so that he could murder them, which is what he did. It didn't work out really very well for the rabbis of the Jewish Community (rabbis have never been an asset to the Jewish community). And after the fact the Quran and Hadith attempt to project on the Jews that they have now killed, statements that endorse Islam, Muhammad and Allah as opposed to mocking them. What are the Jews going to do, put their heads back on their necks and complain? So, this reads “Jews came to the Prophet and asked him about the creation of the heavens and the earth.” They did not do this. If they wanted to know about the creation of the heavens and the Earth, they would have read the Torah.

23:42 “He said, ‘Allah created the earth on Sunday and Monday. He created the mountains and the uses they possess on Tuesday. On Wednesday, He created trees, water, cities and the cultivated and barren land. On Thursday, He created heaven. On Friday, He created stars, the sun, moon, and angels, until three hours remained. In the first of these three hours, He created the terms, who would live and who would die. In the second, He cast harm upon everything that is useful for mankind. And in the third, Adam, and had him dwell in Paradise.’”

24:34 Did you notice how readily Muhammad was willing to speak for Allah? It’s as if speaking for his un-god was a regular part of his routine, almost as if he knew everything Allah knew (that’s not saying much). Yet, judging by his answer, Muhammad may have done better if he had solicited some advice. This was insanely stupid.

25:06 In Muhammad’s version, the Earth existed long before the stars, sun, or moon. Creating mountains and their uses somehow took precedence over trees, which mattered more than animals since they weren’t even mentioned. Cities were conceived by the Islamic god, and not man, and would exist prior to the time man was created. Heaven was created after the fact, because Allah has been excluded from it and wants to demean it. Then, while not having created animal life, Allah was preoccupied determining who would live and die.

25:53 Finally, revealing his true identity, the Snake cast harm on everything that could be potentially beneficial to humankind, even before having created man. This is known as “rigging the game” which is really the only ploy that Satan has left.

26:14 Then when Adam, a name pilfered from Yahowah, finally appears in Paradis, he is neither on Earth nor in Heaven. Nicely done, Muhammad. You are supremely convincing.

26:28 Allah does not fare any better, however, when he says, “I swear by the stars and by the signs of the Zodiac,” in the opening verse of the 85th surah. And he, unlike Yahowah, has no interest in developing a relationship with man. In Quran

51:56, Allah shares, “I have created jinn [demons] and men only to worship Me. I do not want anything from them.”

27:03 Let's be perfectly clear since the religious are confused. The idea of a superior being creating inferior ones to worship him is asinine, rendering the being insecure, narcissistic, and pathetic. And while that may be an adept portrayal of Allah, worship is well below God's dignity.

27:37 Now, this is something that prior to Yahowah asking me to do this research on behalf of His people I had never heard anyone say to anyone at any time much less write it, but it's one of the most profound insights I could share with you, and it is ultimately destructive to Judaism, Christianity and especially Islam where Allah begs to be worshiped. A superior being that would create an inferior being to worship Him isn't worth knowing. That being would be narcissistic, insecure and pathetic. If you and I had the ability to create a slug well beneath us and we then did so so that we could scare the slime out of that slug to the point that the slug burped out platitudes saying, “Dee is great, love Dee, Dee is great. Love Kirk” while genuflecting so that its little rearend mooned you all day while slurping out these platitudes, how long can you watch that slug burp out, “You are great” while mooning you with its hind end, if slugs have such a thing, before you would say, “This is a really bad idea?” Worshiping God is asinine and guess who does ... “Allah Allah oxen free,” Mr. Allah himself, the Snake in the Desert.

29:40 As strange as all that seems, why did the non-prophet contradict himself in the next statement?

29:48 Tabari I:189 “The Messenger took me by the hand and said, (Oh, Muhammad to be such a friend) ‘Allah created soil on Saturday. Upon it, He created the mountains (which are not evidently comprised of soil) on Sunday. He created the trees on Wednesday, scattered animals (which he had failed to create) on Thursday and made Adam as the last of His creatures after the afternoon prayer on Friday.’”

30:36 Allah begins on Saturday rather than Sunday and Monday this time. After taking a much-needed rest on Tuesday this time, he forgot the cities, water, and cultivation and dispenses with the creation of the sun, moon, and stars, as well as paradise in this rendering. Then Allah creates man after the afternoon prayer. So, who was praying and to whom? These guys really needed an editor like Jacki that could say, “Hey. You may want to look at this.” She's really nice about it when I make a goof. She'll put a little question mark in the margin and say, "You may want to take a little look at that."

31:25 Tabari I:189 "The Jews asked the Prophet, (No they didn't, but we'll play along) 'What about Sunday?' The Messenger answered, 'On it, Allah created the earth and spread it out.' (I guess we have a flat Earth) They asked about Monday, and he replied: 'On it He created Adam.'" (Forgetting that Adam had previously been created after the afternoon prayer on Friday).

32:09 "Then they asked about Saturday (Oh, that would be important to them, which of course, Allah should have rested) and mentioned God's resting on it. [Whose name they would never speak, which is the only reason Islam exists. If they had actually said it there would have been no room for Allah. But they shot themselves in the foot by denying God's name. Don't let that happen to you. If you are a Yisra'elite listening to this, God has a name. It is Yahowah.] Then the Prophet got very angry, so Allah then revealed to him: 'We have created the heavens and the earth and what is between them in six days and fatigue did not touch Us.'"

32:52 This became Quran 50:38. It's interesting that Allah was of no help in providing Muhammad with a rational explanation of creation or even help in keeping his stories straight, but when it came time to embarrass the God of the Jews, he jumped in with a handy Quranic revelation.

33:13 He says, in essence, "My god is better than your god because my god didn't need to rest." But that's a problem for a Muslim because according to Islam the "Gods" are supposed to be the same. We need that editor again. If Mike, our fact checker, had been available back then, he could have helped them out. Even worse for Team Islam, according to the Prophet Yasha'yah | Isaiah, the Babylonian Lord who thought he was better than Yahowah was ha Satan | the Adversary.

34:08 Unfortunately, Muhammad's testimony puts us in a quandary. It is too foolish to be from a literate man, which serves to affirm that he purchased Babylonian Talmud recitals from rabbis since his stories were grossly twisted variations of Genesis. I believe that the following Hadith proves this point.

34:45 Bukhari:V4B55N546 "A Jewish rabbi, Abdulla bin Salam approached the Messenger, 'I am going to ask you three things which nobody knows except a prophet," Then how does the Rabbi know them? Nonetheless, I digress.

35:06 "What is the first portent of the Hour?"

35:11 What will be the first meal taken in Paradise?

35:18 Why does a child resemble its father, and why does it resemble its mother?’

35:28 You can’t stump Allah’s apostle. Allah’s Apostle said, ‘Gabriel has just now told me of the answers.’ ‘Gabriel, from among all the angels, is the enemy of the Jews.’

35:42 Before I deal with the answers, Gabrielle, a very simple name. It’s a compound of two words – gabowr and ’el. Gabowr is a very common term throughout the Torah and Prophets. Gabowr | the most competent and courageous of men. It is one of the Hebrew words for men, and ’El is God’s title. So, Gabry’el is God's most competent and courageous man. He's not a mal’ak, much less an angel. Now when you see his name and he appears to Dany’el in that book it's because Daniel wasn't a prophet and it was important for this information to be conveyed to the children of Yisra’el while they were literally a captive audience in Babylon. So, Yahowah sent Dowd between his first and second lives to explain exactly what he himself was going to do because a prophet was needed, and Daniel didn't qualify. Gabriel is not an angel. Gabry’el, in fact Gibowr ’el is used in Yasha’yah | Isaiah 9:6 and speaks of being a courageous and competent man of God. Because Gabry’el is Dowd | David | God's most competent and courageous of all men, he most certainly is not an enemy of the Jews. As I've said, every bit of this is fabricated and projected on Jews because after Muhammad killed them it was easy to get an endorsement from them by making these stories up. There is no man in all of human history who was more supportive of Yahuwdym. He in fact was the most Yahuwd of all Yahuwdym. He embodies what it means to be a Yahuwd.

38:40 All right. Now for the answers. Excuse my rant but my primary mission in life is to be Dowd's Herald. I love the man and I serve him as well as Yahowah, and so when somebody says things that are stupid about Dowd, those are fighting words for me.

39:03 ‘The first portent of the Hour will be a fire that will bring the people from east to west.

39:12 The first meal of Paradise will be caudate lobe of fish-liver.

39:20 As for the resemblance of a child to its parents: If a man has sexual intercourse with his wife and gets discharge first, the child will resemble him, and if the woman gets discharge first, the child will resemble her.’

39:41 On that the rabbi said, ‘I testify you are the Apostle of Allah, and that Jews are liars.’” Well, they would have been, if they were still alive. It’s hard to believe that anyone believes this is scripture or that Muhammad was sane.

40:05 I have no doubt that Muhammad told one of his henchmen this sordid tale to impress him – but this conversation did not actually occur. Since the Towrah provides an irrefutable test for determining who is and is not a prophet in Dabarym / Deuteronomy 18, a rabbi would have known it, and he might have even used it. Unable to read, Muhammad was unaware of it, so he made this story up. Further, the rabbis knew that Muhammad was a fraud. He was, after all, twisting their stories and then claiming that they were revealed to him Allah. That was proof positive that he was lying.

40:59 There is no “portent of the Hour.” There are important dates, but should this have been the question, the answer would have been the fulfillment of Pesach and Matsah in 33 CE and the same with Kipurym and Sukah in 2033. And since he has and will fulfill them, Dowd would have answered those questions correctly.

41:29 I am certain that Pesach and Matsah are seared in his memory, and I think there is no date that he has ever looked forward to more than Kipurym and Sukah in 4000 and 6000 Yah.

41:46 However, there has not been and will not be “a fire that will bring the people from the east to the west.” Wrong question. Wrong answer.

41:59 The first meal in Shamaym | Heaven will be lamb, just as it is the lead item on the menu during Pesach | Passover, the first of the Miqra’ey | Invitations to Meet with God. The non-prophet was pulling the “caudate lobe of fish-liver” out of his posterior.

42:55 A little explanation here might help. No son and the reign of a dictatorial dynasty comes to a crashing halt. Those without them blame their wives so as not to be seen as impotent, and thus vulnerable. Henry VIII comes to mind. Without an heir, the infighting among rivals begins long before the potentate is dead. Here we get the concept of a “lame duck.” So, Muhammad, with a growing harem of young children and sex slaves to abuse, and still not being able to father a son, needed an alibi. Therefore, he is claiming that, rather than being an impotent sexual predator, his victims are so dazzled by his sexual prowess that they all quickly reach sexual climax, precluding another little Mo.

44:09 Being a prophet has nothing to do with making up stories or providing ridiculous answers to meaningless questions. A prophet reveals things which are unknown to people at the time which prove to be accurate at a later date. So, you can tell as Moseh did the order and timing of creation or you can do as Yasha'yah and Dowd have done and predict the future. That is the antithesis of the game being played here.

44:56 As for Abdulla bin Salam, the name itself is incredulous. Abd is from the Hebrew 'ebed which means "slave or servant." And Abdulla is from Abd-Allah and, therefore, means "Slave or Servant of Allah." The name "Allah" was unknown to the Jews. Further, in Hebrew, 'alah means "to curse" and "to swear a lamentable oath."

45:26 Returning to Muhammad's ever-changing creation tale, we discover a talking planet.

45:34 Tabari I:192 "Allah said to the heavens and earth: 'Come willingly or unwillingly!' They said: 'We come willingly.'

45:47 Allah said to the heavens: Cause My sun, My moon, and My stars to rise.' To the earth He said, 'Split your rivers and bring forth fruit.' Both replied: 'We come willingly.'"

46:00 It is one thing for Muhammad and Allah to be in contention for dumbest prophet and god duo of all time, but surely, not every Muslim is this foolish. Ah, but then again, unlike the sun, moon, and stars, they did not come along willingly.

46:26 At this point, we are using Tabari as our primary source of Islamic scripture. While he quotes Traditions from Ibn Ishaq, Hisham abrogated this portion of Muhammad's Hadith from the original Collection. The reason that Hisham said he had to eliminate a goodly number of oral reports from Muhammad and his companions is because they were too embarrassing. If the ones he eliminated were too embarrassing, and these are the ones he left, can you even imagine how bad they had to be? That said, I will continue to include Quran quotations within the Tabari narrative, peppering the whole discussion with Bukhari Hadith.

47:23 Even though Muslims want to draw a distinction between the idiocy in the Quran and the stupidity of the Sunnah, there isn't actually any difference between them – other than the Hadith are more credible because they provide the names of those responsible for their transmission. The oral reports in the Hadith and the Quran were initially spoken by the same individuals at the same time. And they were transmitted through these same people in the same way – mouth to ear through four generations prior to being written down. It is impossible, therefore, for the Quran to be more credible than the Hadith under these circumstances. If Muhammad and his followers are not to be trusted, everything that is Islam crumbles if you rid the religion of the Hadith or try to separate its credibility from the Quran. This is a house built out of a deck of cards comprised entirely of jokers.

48:51 Next, Muhammad takes us through a spirited debate on what was created first.

48:57 Tabari I:198 “I heard Muhammad say: ‘The first thing created by Allah was the Pen. And Allah said to it: “Write!” It proceeded at that very hour to write whatever is going to be.’”

49:16 This is an essential insight into Islam | Submission. The religion is entirely fatalistic. There is no choice. Everything is predestined. Whatever was going to be, would be. And that makes Muhammad’s perverse life, his toxic words, the Quran and Allah a colossal waste of time. Everyone’s fate is sealed. Don’t rape, plunder and kill on behalf of a god when your fate was sealed before you were born.

49:51 This is the inverse in the Towrah, where we are given the choice to accept Yahowah or reject him. Freewill is so pervasive throughout God’s testimony that the cohortative, imperative, and jussive moods serve to express volition in first, second, and third person. The reason for this is that love cannot be compelled, and the purpose of creation is to raise the Covenant Family.

50:21 Returning to the “Pen,” if it was created first, what did it write upon? What language do you suppose it wrote? Was it some form of Akkadian in cuneiform? After all, the stylus produced the first written language on planet Earth. Or was it Egyptian hieroglyphics, which appeared next? Could it have been Hebrew – the first phonetic alphabet and the language of Yahowah’s revelation to humankind? Nabatean is also a viable option in that Petra had been their capital, and is where Muhammad grew up. Although, by this time, Latin was on the decline and Greek was on the rise.

51:04 Nope, according to Allah it was Arabic, even though it, as a derivative of Hebrew, didn’t exist prior to the late 7th century. Alas, it was a miracle.

51:24 Quran 046.002 “And before it, the Book of Musa was a guide: and this is a Book verifying (it) in the Arabic language.”

51:39 Arabic aside, are Muslims completely incapable of thinking? How can the Quran have been written by the Pen before anything was created, including the Earth and humankind, even for that matter, “the Book of Musa”? How can “the Book of Musa” be written before it if the Pen wrote the Quran before the Earth was created? That is logically impossible. Moreover, rather than “verifying” the Towrah, Muhammad, Allah, and the Pen managed to contradict it in every imaginable way. Also, as I’ve mentioned previously, the Torah was written on a scroll. Books did not exist prior to the 4th century CE.

52:44 If it is a book it had to come after the 4th Century. Prior to the 4th Century, for a period of about six centuries, man had (I don't know if it's an advancement; I think it's a digression) digressed from parchment scrolls to papyrus codices. Parchment codices are vastly less enduring than is a papyrus scroll and so the progression was initially man chiseled word in stone; that’s how it all began, chisel word in stone. Then we have the stylus - press stick into mud brick. After that you have Yahowah telling Moseh and all His Prophets, “I want you to write this down on a scroll.” Following that, starting about 100 to 200 BCE we begin to integrate papyrus codices and then come about 400 CE paper is invented and the first books were written. So, there could not have been a “book of Musa.” Now, you might think that's a minor point, but this guy is pretending to be God. If I know it, don't you think he should have known it?

54:33 At this point, I have overwhelmingly prevailed in this ongoing debate against Allah, even though we are just beginning, because we have provided thus far unassailable evidence that his Quran and Hadith are untrue. All that is left now is faith in that which has been proven false. However, to be fair, I’m not bragging that we have prevailed in this debate against Allah because we are arguing against a pair of nincompoops.

55:11 But since it only gets worse from here, for the sake of its victims, let’s continue to beat this lifeless camel. Following the world’s ignorant, irrational, and immoral reaction to the demonic display of Islam on October 7th, 2023, I cannot think of anything more important or of a more beneficial way to invest our time. We need to take the sting out of Islam.

55:44 Allah is insistent that he created Arabic long before its time and that the Quran was the most important thing he conceived...

55:51 Quran 039.027 “Lo! Verily, We have coined for man in this Quran every kind of parable and similitudes in order that they may receive admonition.

56:13 Quran 039.028 (It is) a Quran in Arabic, without any crookedness (therein) that they may ward off, take heed, and do their duty.” Said the Snake.

56:26 The opposite is true. There are so many parables by contrast included within Yahowah’s testimony, there is a collection called Mashal | Proverbs and Parables. In the Quran, there are few if any – and none with any redeeming value.

56:45 If we were to define “crookedness” as either “criminal behavior,” “inaccuracies,” “immorality,” “irrationality,” “contradictions,” or “plagiarism,” then the Quran is so rife with them, it ceases to exist without them.

57:04 And, truth be known, both Quran and Arabic are Hebrew words. The first is from qara’ | to read and recite and the second is from ‘arab | to be twisted and obnoxious. Clearly, Satan would not have made either claim if he had thought that Muslims would ever be smart enough to hold him accountable for these delusions.

57:34 And be advised, as before, the words added in the (parentheses) are terms the Pen omitted when writing the Quran but which the most capable Arabic translators recognized were required to communicate effectively. These words are not included in the Arabic original. Therefore, Allah’s grammar was as deficient as his grasp on reality.

58:11 And while I’d like to move on to Allah’s next errant claim about his Book of Similitudes, I’d like to embarrass him further before we go on. Allah makes an attempt at a parable in the next statement...

58:35 Quran 039.029 “Allah coineth a similitude: a (slave) man owned by many partners disputing with one another, and a (slave) man belonging to one master. Are those two equal in comparison. All praises are due to Allah. Nay! Most of them are ignorant.

58:57 Quran 039.027 Verily you will die and they will die.”

59:04 Allah be praised. That may be the worst parable ever.

59:10 This surah is so incriminating, let’s let Allah continue to expose himself – especially since there is a creation attestation within the surah. Islam’s humble one said...

59:30 Quran 039.001 “The revelation of this Book is from Allah, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.

59:37 Quran 039.002 We have revealed to you the Scripture with exactitude, so worship Allah exclusively by being religious.

59:44 Quran 039.003 Surely, religion is for Allah only. And those who take associates and partners besides Him, say, ‘We worship them only that they may bring us near unto Allah. Lo! Allah will judge between them concerning that wherein they differ. Verily, Allah does not guide him aright who is a liar, an ingrate.’”

1:00:21 If the Quran is exacting, why are there so many glaring contradictions? How can Allah demand worship and religion while claiming to be the God of the Torah, since Yahowah is vehemently opposed to both?

1:00:44 But I’ll grant you –Dee is correct - religion is for Allah. It certainly doesn’t serve anyone else.

1:00:51 As we consider the un-god’s next statement, it is relevant to know that Yahowah has a beloved son, His firstborn, Dowd | David. He is the exemplar of the Covenant. And by fulfilling Pesach and Matsah, he became the beneficiary of Bikuwrym and Shabuw’ah. Even recognizing how well Moseh and Yahowah collaborated, God’s ultimate partner has been and will continue to be His beloved son, Dowd.

1:01:27 So, Allah is both jealous and threatened, knowing that upon the Messiah’s return, he will be unceremoniously dispatched to She’owl | Hell. It will be a jihadist reunion – a time to brag about those they raped and enslaved, mutilated and murdered. By the way, that also means that Yahowah endorses my plan to quarantine Islam, and His place of quarantine just so happens to be She’owl, which in English might be translated as Hell.

1:02:08 Allah also wanted to counter the rising popularity of Christianity, so he rebuffed the myth that Jesus was the Son of God by saying...

1:02:21 Quran 039.004 “Had Allah desired to take a son, He could have chosen whom He pleased out of those whom He created. But glory be to Him! He is Allah, the One, the Irresistible.”

1:02:39 For those who have read about the rise and fall of Satan in Yasha’yah | Isaiah 14, they not only recognize the speaker, they see the Lord of Babel fulfilling this prophecy in these words.

1:02:51 I promised a creation account, so, lo, verily, here is...

1:02:59 Quran 039.005 “He has created the heavens and the earth with the truth. He folds the day up over the night, and folds the night up over the day. He has subjugated the sun and the moon. Each running (on a fixed course) for an appointed term. Lo! He is the All-Mighty, the Forgiver.

1:03:29 Quran 039.006 He created you from a single being (person). Then from that He made its mate. And he has provided for you eight kind of cattle. He created you in the wombs of your mothers, creation after creation in a threefold gloom (three veils of darkness). Such is Allah, your Lord. His is the kingdom. There is no God but He. How then are you turned away?” May I count the ways this is convincing.

1:04:06 So, the first question I have is when does the maid come in and change the sheets, recognizing that they are being folded around the world? And is this a revolving folding, progressing around the planet as it spins, or is Allah advancing a flat earth theory to accommodate the flattened sheets?

1:04:31 It would be interesting to know how Allah defines “truth.” Perhaps it is folded up as the night swallows the day.

1:04:43 Pagan gods of yesteryear were said to have harnessed and subjugated the sun and moon. And they all had something in common with Allah – they were not real either. But at least Allah is staying fit by jogging alongside his leashed celestial slaves.

1:05:06 In this iteration of “Let’s Make Man,” Allah has dispensed with the coagulated blood and the nutfa drops. Now you all may not be familiar with coagulated blood or nutfa drops, so since that was in a previous chapter, I’ll just kind of bring you up to speed. Coagulated blood is when Alla (It was not Allah but a dark demon) first met Muhammad when he was out being religious. He went into a cave above Petra on these religious rituals and in there this dark spirit told him, demanded that he read. He was illiterate so Muhammad said, “I don’t know how to read,” at which point the dark spirit pummeled him and said, “Read, I said!” “But I don’t know how to read.” “I don’t care. Read!” And each time the dark spirit would harass him all the more and literally pressed him to the point of death (unfortunately not quite far enough). Then this dark spirit said, “Read! In the name of your lord based, upon what the Pen writes that man was created out of coagulated blood.” Muhammad was so impressed with his first experience with Allah that the first thing in his mind was to say I have been demon-possessed and he tried to throw himself off the mountain and commit suicide. I recall my first meeting with Yahowah and that was not my reaction. Now, that explains coagulated blood. But what is a nutfa drop? A nutfa drop is a male and female discharge, to use Allah's terms. The second iteration is that man was created from nutfa drops. So, this time we have another revelation and we're going to get our act together.

1:07:11 This time, man was created from another man. It is another miracle of the Quran, because Allah is always looking for ways to devalue women.

1:07:25 But perhaps I have this all wrong. What if, contradictions and inaccuracies aside, Allah, instead of being dumb as a stone, is a genius. Do you suppose the Islamic Adam was a hermaphrodite – an unknown condition back in the day? Or was Allah predicting the rise of sexual dysmorphia among Progressives and the non-binary excitement over the rise in transgender? Umm, no.

1:08:05 Listen, I did everything I could kicking and screaming telling Yahowah I really don't want to go back and rewrite the Prophet of Doom. I don't like Islam; it's really dark and demented. I'd like a reprieve. The only time I can ever recall Yahowah being stern with me is when He said, "I've taken care of you. You take care of My people. You can get about doing this." And now that I'm in it, I'm exceedingly grateful for a number of reasons. One is I had Christian references in the first version of it, and I'm really embarrassed. Yes, it was 22 years ago but in all that time I hadn't reread the book, so seeing them I was horrified. So, I am pleased to have this opportunity to correct my mistakes and to get them out. My comments on Islam were all true, they just weren't harsh enough, and I understand Yahowah, His Torah and Prophets, and the Adversary so much better that I'm now able to see through all this and can go right to the jugular (if a snake in fact has a jugular). We can go right after this Serpent.

1:09:42 The other thing that has transpired since that time is I barely knew what 'Elyah was about 22 years ago. Now 'Elyah's story of going after the prophets of ba of Ba'al | the Lord and Asherah is my absolute favorite story, and he is sarcastic, to beat the camel; he is really funny. So, now knowing that, we're taking this approach because I am certain this is precisely what Yahowah would have us do.

1:10:29 In reality, the whole sperm meets egg thing was obviously a bit advanced for Allah, and the notion of the ungod in the wombs of our mothers to create us is creepy. And Allah seems to agree, referring to his time in the womb of our mothers as a threefold gloom veiled in darkness. But such is our Lord, ever the micromanager. It's a wonder he isn't worn out, especially without any partners to whom he can delegate.

1:11:01 The odd reference to eight kinds of cows was evidently a puzzler to the brain trust of Islam that sent them into a frenzy of possibilities. So, the Noble Quran inserted (of the sheep, two, male and female, of the goats, two, male and female, of the oxen, two, male and female, and of the camels, two, male and female). Can you imagine sending one of those folks to milk the cow and what they might come back with? Well, anyway it is handy to know. Had we not figured it out, we might have stumbled upon this...

1:11:42 Quran 039.007 “If you are a thankless rejecter, then verily, Allah is independent of you. He likes not ingratitude from His slaves.

1:11:57 And if you are grateful, He is pleased therewith for you. No bearer of burdens shall bear the burden of another.

1:12:03 Then to your Lord is your return, so He will tell you what you used to do. Lo! He is the All-Knower of that which is in breasts (of men).”

1:12:28 Hell forbid we all become thankless rejectors. Allah would be done with his ungrateful slaves and the world would be independent of Islam. But a word of caution – how would the world manage to pay the unemployment benefits of millions idle terrorists?

1:12:48 At first glance, I wrote off the line, “No bearer of burdens shall bear the burden of another. Then to your Lord is your return, so He will tell you what you used to do,” as a word salad. But perhaps not. On Matsah | UnYeasted Bread, Dowd’s soul was burdened with the guilt of every Covenant member, carrying it off to She’owl where it was deposited, never to be seen again at least by God. This makes us appear perfect in Yahowah’s eyes. So, the Adversary is denying it, knowing that there is no other means to salvation. Instead of our guilt vanishing, Satan is claiming that he will see it, which is quite possible because he, too, will be in Hell. And he is claiming that men cannot avoid joining him there. There will be a lot of Muslims there.

1:13:58 Now, it is on to the Surah of the Jihadist Boo-boo...

1:14:04 Quran 039.008 “When some hurt touches man, he cries to his Lord, turning to Him. But when He bestows a favor on him, he forgets what we prayed for before and sets up others as friends and partners as rivals to Allah in order to mislead from His way. Say, ‘Take pleasure and advantage of your disbelief and rejection for a little while. You will be among the inmates of the Fire!

1:14:40 Quran 039.009 Is one who is obedient to Allah, prostrating himself or standing (in prayer) during the hours of the night, fearing the Hereafter and hoping for the mercy of his Lord, (...) Say ‘Are those who know equal with those who know not? It is only they think who are wise.

1:15:08 Quran 039.010 Say, ‘O My slave who believe, be afraid of your Lord and keep your duty to Him. Good is for those who do good in this world, and spacious is Allah’s earth. Only those who are patient will receive their reward measureless and wages without stint [ungenerous or inadequate].’

1:15:42 What favor – more cows, or a more entertaining experience in the fire? Yes, indeed, it is the pleasure of knowing that Hell awaits.

1:15:55 In the matter of obedience, prostrations, and fear, Yahowah and Allah are opposites. Yahowah asks us to be observant, to walk with Him, and to respect Him. Allah, however, is Hell’s warden.

1:16:11 Yahowah liberated His people from slavery and Allah wants to enslave them all over again. Methinks they are at cross purposes.

1:16:23 You may have noticed in the 9th verse, (I tried to point it out as I was sharing it with you) that Allah sets up a comparison but then forgot to provide the alternative. To resolve the omission in the perfect recital, the Pickthall translator added “(to be accounted as equal with a disbeliever).” And who said Allah didn’t have partners? Dare we press ahead?

1:16:49 Quran 039.011 “Say, ‘I am commanded to worship Allah, with obedience all-exclusive for Him.

1:16:57 Quran 039.012 And I am commanded to be the first of those who submit as Muslims.’ How is that possible if Adam, Noach, Abraham, Moseh were supposed to be Muslims?

1:17:22 Quran 039.013 Say, ‘If I disobey my Lord, I fear the punishment of an evil Day.’

1:17:27 Quran 039.014 Say, ‘I worship Allah, making my religion all exclusive for him in my obedience.

1:17:35 Quran 039.015 So worship what you like besides Him.’ Say, ‘The losers are those who will lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection. Verily, that will be a manifest loss! (for the losers).

1:17:53 Quran 039.016 They will have layers of fire covering above them and a covering beneath them (of flames). With this Allah does frighten His slaves. ‘O My slaves, fear Me.’” This is just disgusting and demonic. And yet two billion people are convinced that Satan is their god.

1:18:14 Having enjoyed the past twenty-two years working alongside my Heavenly Father, Yahowah, I have never appreciated Him more than at this moment of great contrast. Religions like Islam create gods in their founder’s image. They use fear to induce obedience and compliance, even worship. Afraid, the masses submit, not knowing that their god is actually the Devil in drag. Everyone loses, including God.

1:19:04 That is as much as I can handle of this, so let’s move on. In Islam, the pinnacle of creation isn’t life but, instead, this deadly diatribe.

1:19:37 Quran 041.003 “A Scripture Book, whereof the verses are explained in detail; a Quran in Arabic, for people who have knowledge.” Yes, that’s the pinnacle of Allah’s creation, not life, not a covenant. Nope. It’s a “scripture book” of verses that are explained in detail. A Quran in Arabic.

1:19:43 Scripture is from the Latin, scriptura, meaning “written,” making “scripture book” verbose. More problematic for Islam, however, if such a book existed, why wasn’t it provided? Why did the transmission of this jumbled mess necessitate an illiterate man living among unlettered people before the written form of this language even existed? And even then, why claim to give it to people who already “have knowledge,” especially when the opposite is now evident?

1:20:30 Truth and lies are often found in the “details,” and this is one of the places where the Quran is most deficient. As an example, consider how many relevant details were omitted from the following Quran citation based upon all the parenthetical comments which I will highlight that were added by Allah’s little helpers...

1:21:01 Quran 041.044 “Had We sent this as a Quran (in the language) other than Arabic, they would have said: ‘Why are not its verses explained in detail? What! (a foreign tongue, a Book) not in Arabic and (a Messenger) an Arab?’ Say (unto them, Muhammad): ‘It is a Guide to those who believe; and for those who do not believe it, there is a deafness in their ears, and it is blindness in their (eyes)!’”

1:21:54 The first to hear this verbal diarrhea spew out of Muhammad’s mouth recognized that his un-god dispensed with cogent explanations. Nonetheless, that deficiency was mitigated by compelling dialog: “What, not in Arabic and an Arab.” And the accusations are particularly astute: “For those who do not believe it, there is a deafness in their ears, and it is blindness in their.” Who can argue with that?

1:22:28 Back in the real world, rational presentations of useful information are organized by context, subject, or chronologically. These approaches are essential to understanding – which is why I am reordering the Quran’s message chronologically and then setting it into the context of Muhammad’s repulsive life. To further understanding, at the conclusion of God Damn Religion, I have rearranged much of this material for you by subject. In this way, I overcome the Quran’s failure to provide a cogent explanation.

1:23:01 At the time this was allegedly revealed, around 600 CE, less than one percent of the planet spoke Arabic and no one wrote it. And those who spoke it would have been the least prepared to process this or any book. Moreover, what is the value of a divine revelation if it cannot be translated and communicated effectively to all mankind? Recognizing these things, including the deplorable grammar, Quran 41:44 is incomprehensible. And perhaps that is why Satan provided a handy excuse – “for those who do not believe it, there is deafness in their ears, and blindness in their...umm, whatever that other sensory organ is called that is used to process illuminated images.”

1:23:56 Tabari I:199 “I heard the Prophet say: ‘The first thing created by Allah was the Pen. Allah said to it: “Write!” The Pen asked, “What shall I write?” Allah replied, “Write what is predestined.””

1:24:17 Should we give Muhammad a pass on the talking Pen, since it makes as much sense as a talking Earth, it still begs the question: if the Pen knew all that was predestined, why didn’t it know what Allah wanted it to do?

1:24:37 Beyond the anthropomorphic implements bowing to Allah’s will, there is no point to any of this, and thus to Islamic terrorism, if the Pen wrote what is predestined. Moreover, the previous claims regarding verifying the Towrah are proven false by this absurdity. Yes, I realize that religious advocates over the years have agreed with Allah, from the Essenes, Gnostics, and Christians, including Calvin and Machiavelli, but a real God would have known better.

1:25:12 Al Tabari interjected to protest, Tabari I:202 in his own words, “There are people who consider predestination untrue. Then they consider the Quran untrue.... People merely carry out what is a foregone conclusion, decided by predestination and written down by the Pen.”

1:25:41 For Al Tabari to have written this in Bagdad in the 9th century means that educated Persians recognized that the claims of predestination alone were sufficient to reject Muhammad, Allah, the Quran, and Islam. I am not the first to bring this reality to light.

1:25:59 Fortunately, the Quran is wrong, and it does matter what we choose to do while we have the opportunity. I have chosen to expose and condemn Muhammad and Allah, Islam and the Quran to protect Jews from the onslaught of Muslims. I have repudiated the myths of Christianity, Judaism, and Progressives to liberate the indoctrinated from these curses. In addition, I’ve written a score of books sharing and explaining Yahowah’s testimony to His people so that they might live fulfilling lives. I think that these are intelligent choices and worthy endeavors. Moreover, Yahowah asked if I’d be willing, I simply agreed – freewill and all.

1:26:50 It is hard to imagine wallowing in such stupidity, but nonetheless, the Quran has a surah named after and devoted to “The Pen.” It is the 68th. And in it, the Pen is a “witness.”

1:27:06 Quran 068:001 “I call to witness the Pen and what it inscribes.” Without the Hadith, you wouldn’t know what “Pen” the non-god was talking about. So, thankfully, we have been diligent and not left you in the lurch, grasping at straws to make sense of this. You now know all there is to know about the Pen.

1:27:34 The second verse is delicious. The Lord was possessed to tell his lone non-prophet:

1:28:01 Quran 068.002 “You are not demented, demon possessed, or mad.” Well, I’m glad the false god cleared that up since all evidence was to the contrary. However, keeping it real, the only reason that Muhammad and his pet Rock would say such a thing is to refute the obvious. Anyone with half a brain listening to this would have immediately recognized that the non-prophet was “demented, likely demon-possessed, and completely insane.” And afforded freewill, they would have run away as quickly as possible.

1:28:44 This statement continues with, “There is surely an unending reward for you.” That’s not accurate either. While Muhammad cashed in on the 75 terrorist raids that he conducted from Yathrib, he would die a very painful death. And I will personally assure you that Muhammad spends his eternity in She'owl | Hell as recompense for his crimes against humanity.

1:29:33 It is telling that Muhammad's name is only mentioned four times in the Quran. The first is in

1:29:38 Quran 003.144 where Allah affirms that his messenger boy was a non-prophet – something which was already obvious. “Muhammad was only a messenger – many were the messenger that passed away before him. If he died or were slain, will ye then turn back on your heels? If any did turn back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allah.”

1:30:16 Therefore, if only a messenger, Muhammad could not be as Muslims present him. Also interesting is that this presents two hypotheticals that are not possible under predestination. But why be consistent when playing God? It is so limiting for the pretense of the Almighty.

1:30:43 Not surprisingly, the demotion Allah afforded his non-prophet was embarrassing for a man who was claiming to be better than Moseh and Dowd. Conveniently, therefore, Allah dispensed with consistency and contradicted himself in the next occasion. He is recorded protesting,

1:31:01 Quran 033.040 “Muhammad is not the father of any of your men, but the Messenger of Allah and the Seal of the Prophets: and Allah has full knowledge of all things.” For a sensible being, the proof of a prophet would be accurate prophecy, but Allah did not play by those rules. In Allah's case the “Seal” was a hairy mole on Muhammad's back. And who would dare disagree with a know-it-all?

1:31:39 The third mention of the mighty Muhammad is found in

1:31:48 Quran 047.002, so at least they are randomly spaced. And equally stupid because the Islamic god forgot what he had revealed to Doctor Truth. It reads: “But those who believe and work deeds of righteousness, and believe in the sent down to Muhammad - for it is the Truth from their Lord,- He will remove from them their ills and improve their condition.” I'm beating a gimpy camel here, but nonetheless, there cannot be a conditional clause under the auspices of predestination. And while I cannot speak for you, I prefer my God to be literate.

1:32:37 Moving on to the fourth and final iteration of Muhammad in the text of the Quran, we find the following in

1:32:44 Quran 048.029: “Muhammad is the messenger of Allah; and those who are with him are strong against Unbelievers, (but) compassionate amongst each other. Thou wilt see them bow and prostrate themselves (in prayer), seeking Grace from Allah and (His) Good Pleasure.

1:33:00 On their faces are their marks, (being) the traces of their prostration. This is their similitude in the Taurat; and their similitude in the Gospel is: like a seed which sends forth its blade, then makes it strong; it then becomes thick, and it stands on its own stem, (filling) the sowers with wonder and delight.

1:33:33 As a result, it fills the Unbelievers with rage at them. Allah has promised those among them who believe and do righteous deeds forgiveness, and a great Reward.”

1:33:57 It begins accurately enough. Muhammad was the messenger of Allah. The problem is that Allah was Muhammad’s alter ego and thus not God.

1:34:06 The promise is also untrue. Islam is penal. It would be hard to find a religion more retarding, at least apart from Hasidic Judaism. Although to be fair, they are based upon the same Talmud.

1:34:14 It is also true that Muslims “bow down and prostrate themselves.” Mooning God is a central plank of their religion – and this, no doubt pleases Satan.

1:34:38 However, “this similitude” cannot be found “in the Taurat,” which we will assume is the Towrah. Yahowah never asks anyone to bow down before Him, and when someone makes this mistake, He politely asks them to stand. There is, however, one command to bow and it is found in Yasha ’yah | Isaiah where those who are being judged will be humiliated in this way.

1:35:10 As for their “similitude in the Gospel,” there is more than one of them and they are not even remotely accurate. And while they do not call for prostrations, to claim that which is false is to admit to being dishonest. And while it is a minor point among more revealing ones, when God speaks of seeds growing strong, it is never in reference to grass which is fleeting and fades. Moreover, the transition from the untenable position that the Torah and Gospels convey the same message on prostration and that the Gospel message strengthens, it is incongruous to say, “as a result, it fills the unbelievers with rage at them.” If it was the same message, why would they be enraged?

1:36:06 While I have presented all four mentions of Muhammad, Allah apparently had a senior moment and forgot his name in Quran 061.006. But that was hardly his only mistake since there was no “Jesus,” and Allah mistakenly called him “Isa” which is Esau, who is the person that Yahowah designated individually that He hated. There was no “Mary,” either, and it would have been impossible for a mythical misnomer in the 1st century CE to have uttered the name of a god whose name would not become known until the 7th century. Nonetheless this is what we read during Allah’s senior moment which he blames on “Jesus”...

1:36:58 Quran 061.006 “And remember, Jesus [Isa in the text], the son of Mary, (who didn't exist and whose name actually means embittered and contentious) said: ‘O Children of Israel! I am the messenger of Allah (sent) to you, confirming the Law (which came) before me, and giving Glad Tidings of a Messenger to come after me, whose name shall be Ahmad.’ But when he came to them with Clear Signs, they said, ‘this is evident sorcery!’” Not to worry, Ahmad, at least Allah got the “mad” part right.

1:37:45 There were likely Christians in Petra and perhaps even in Yathrib in the 7th century. And since Muhammad was envious of the claims they made of their god, and since he had failed in convincing the Jews in Arabia that he was their Messiah, Muhammad, excuse me, Ahmed, needed to cut the myth of Isa, excuse me again, Jesus, down to his size – which was really puny.

1:38:20 Although, once again, we find an occasional nugget of truth in the Quranic diatribe. In this case, “they said, ‘this is evident sorcery!’” Frankly, it’s obvious. And if I may, there were never “Signs,” clear or otherwise, to validate any of this.

1:38:42 Moving past the man who would be god, we find that the following Bukhari Hadith confirms Islam’s lack of choice and Muhammad’s dearth of prophetic credentials.

1:38:56 Bukhari:V4B55N549 in case you want to put it on your refrigerator and have it properly credentialed: “Allah’s Apostle, the true and truly inspired said, ‘As it relates to your creation, every one of you is collected in the womb of his mother for the first forty days, and then he becomes a clot for another forty days, and then a piece of flesh for another forty days [a four-month gestation isn’t even half right - nor is the process]. Then Allah sends an angel to write four words: He writes his deeds, time of his death, means of his livelihood, and whether he will be wretched or blessed.’”

1:39:50 Thank you, Doctor Muhammad. You are truly inspired. Allah's time in the womb of our mothers miraculously conceiving children in Quran 039.006 wasn't wasted on you. And you even managed to work in a nifty explanation of predestination for the half-backed children of Islam. Bravo.

1:40:17 Scribbling on, the Pen gathers rivals for its pole position in the race of creation...

1:40:23 Tabari I:204 “I asked the Prophet, ‘Where was Allah before His creation?’ Muhammad replied: ‘He was in a cloud with no air underneath or above it.’”

1:40:36 Last time I checked, a cloud was comprised of water suspended in air, but Muhammad knows best.

1:40:43 Tabari I:204 “Then Allah created His Throne upon the water.”

1:40:48 If there were clouds, water, and a throne – how did the Pen come first? And may I ask, how could there have been a cloud and water before the Earth was created? And just checking, isn't H₂O comprised of two of the many gasses comprising our atmosphere?

1:41:15 I'm sure the non-prophet will clear this up, a little patience please, so let's listen to a Hadith from one of his Companions. Like so many Traditions, this one is found in both Tabari and Bukhari. Quite the stamp of approval it has.

1:41:37 Tabari I:204 & Bukhari:V4B54N414 “Some people came to the Messenger, entered his presence, and said: ‘Give us gifts!’ [Muhammad's militants were mercenaries after all. The prophet bribed his way to prosperity.] This continued until it annoyed him. Then they left.

1:41:50 Some other people came in and said, ‘We have come to greet the Messenger of Allah and become knowledgeable about the religion and ask about the beginning of the world.’

1:42:10 He said, ‘Allah existed while there was nothing else. His Throne was upon the water, and all that was going to be was written on the memorial Tablet before anything else was created. Then Allah created the seven heavens.’

1:42:22 Just then, someone came to me and said, ‘That camel of yours is gone.’ I went out and found that she was out of sight. I surely wish that I would have let her go so that I would not have missed the rest of the Prophet's remarks!”

1:42:40 Okay, let me see if I understand this. The Pen was created first but before it was created Allah created his throne in a cloud without air. The throne was on water, which was yet to be created. Then we had writing on a tablet, which had yet to be made so that Allah could tell us that there are seven heavens, which were created before or after the Earth depending upon which version you believe. Bottom line: the camel's gone. That's about all we know for sure.

1:43:26 The Bukhari version of the runaway camel ends with this insight into how Muhammad conveyed his "inspired" revelations and how they were ultimately retained and passed along to us as scripture. This one is also suitable for framing:

1:43:49 Bukhari:V4B54N414 "One day the Prophet stood up amongst us for a long period and informed us about the beginning of creation. He talked about everything in detail. He ended his speech by mentioning how the people of Paradise will enter the Garden and how the people of Hell will enter the Fire. Some remembered what he had said, and some forgot."

1:44:22 Muhammad's fellow thieves and terrorists weren't the only ones who had trouble remembering this stuff.

1:44:27 Bukhari:V6B61N550 "The Prophet said, 'It is a bad thing that some of you say, "I have forgotten such-and-such verse of the Quran." For truly, I have been caused by Allah to forget it. So, you must keep on reciting the Quran because it escapes faster than a runaway camel.'" There you have it, folks. That is Islam. It is good to know that camels also had an aversion to the Quran too. I'm gaining a newfound respect for these lumpy and grumpy spitting artiodactyls.

1:45:18 Since memories were fleeting, to be fair, I say we give Muhammad another chance. Surely, he'll straighten all of this out. After all, two billion people trust this man with their souls – and many of them kill for him.

1:45:32 Tabari I:206 "When Allah wanted to create the heavens and earth, He grabbed a fistful of small rocks in the water. He then opened his fist with the rocks and they rose in the form of smoke.

1:45:44 Then Allah fashioned the seven heavens and extended the earth in two days. He finished the creation on the seventh day.

1:45:58 He created the Footstool after the Pen and then the Throne. Thereafter He created the air and darkness.

1:46:05 He then created the water and placed His Throne upon it. ...He was in a cloud with no air underneath or above it. Thus, the Messenger reported.”

1:46:22 So that explains it. It makes perfect sense. Muhammad was making this up as he went along – and he was as dimwitted as the Black Stone representing his god.

1:46:35 Now, I ask you: since it’s obvious that his scripture was contrived, what else do you suppose Muhammad made up as he went along: Allah and Islam perhaps? And that’s really the point. The more you’re exposed to Muhammad and his religion, the more you will come to understand the nature and purpose of Islam.

1:47:02 There are two reasons I am sharing these inane and contradictory Islamic creation accounts. First, I promised that we would start at the beginning and cover Muhammad’s creation of Islam chronologically – starting with his version of the world’s beginnings. We will go step by step through his corruption of Adam, Noah, and Abraham to see how he misused the patriarchs to establish his dogma.

1:47:36 Second, I want you to know Muhammad and Allah – to see them as they really are. Each time they propose things that are logically impossible, contradictory, or twisted you’ll be able to judge their sincerity, validity, and veracity.

1:47:57 That's probably a decent place for us to stop this program for this evening. My wife handed me a note which I should probably read. It says, “Israel announced a global travel warning for all Jewish citizens. Rethink travel. Avoid outward signs of Jewish identity.” This is coming from the Prime Minister's office.

1:48:24 It is open season on Jews. I told you that October 7th of 2023 is the day the world changed forever and for Jews it is the day that they are being marshaled towards the second Holocaust and the events that played out on October 7th and the subsequent turning of the world against them for simply trying to defend themselves is going to grow so much worse and there is no solution, literally none other than to come to accept Yahowah, to return to Yahowah, to accept the terms and conditions of the Covenant and to attend the Miqra’ey as they were intended, to recognize that it is Yahowah and His Son, Dowd the Messiah, who are returning on Kipurym in Year 6000 Yah on October 2nd 2033. I want you to be there to celebrate the family reunion with them. That is the only way to survive this. The only way we can slow down the onslaught is to expose and condemn the actual disease that caused the events of October 7th, and that isn't Hamas, it’s Islam.

1:49:58 Thank you for listening. I hope I've managed to keep you somewhat entertained as we go through this dark and absurd religion. I’m certainly trying my best to find the humor in it because I need to get readers and listeners through these early chapters because once we turn to Yathrib, and Muhammad declares war on all humankind and starts decapitating Jews, enslaving their children and raping their women, it just never stops. It's a constant barrage of what the world witnessed on October 7th. It began then and it has not ended and so the best we can hope is to mock Muhammad and Allah to the point that when they declare Jihad on the world everyone knows that they're a fraud.

Have a wonderful Shabbat. Thank you for listening. May the best be to Israel as they try to eradicate Hamas from the planet, and may they survive this onslaught of anti-Semitism that is engulfing the world. We will certainly do everything in our power risking our reputations and our lives to serve Yahowah's people and to awaken them at this time. May Yah bless. Good night.
